

Principle Courses of Master Degree

| Code &Name | Contents |
|---|---|
| PAR-1060 Helminthology | Introduction on parasitic helminths and studying their effect on animal production and health. Study The morphology and life cycle of different helminths, clinical signs caused by them and methods of samples collection and examination. Idea about methods of control. Practical courses about their morphological identification and its diagnostic stages |
| PAR-1061 Protozoa & Arthropods | The course includes 2 separate subjects, Veterinary Protozoology & Arthropods. The theoretical lectures, include Introduction on characteristic features and general characters of different Protozoa and Arthropods. Study The morphology and life cycle of different helminths, clinical signs caused by them. Their Life cycle Pathogenicity & control. Practical courses about their morphological identification and its diagnostic stages |